COLLECTION FOR MINISTERIAL RELIEF

Money to Be Raised on Sunday

A VISION IN PULASKI

nteresting Account Given in the Herald Central Presbyterian Opposes Park Concerts-About Bishop Whittle's Episcopate.

In all of the Presbyterian churches of the South on Sunday next collections will be taken for the benent of the As-sembly's Committee on Ministerial Relief, located in this city. Every effort has been made to get the matter suitably before the various pastors, and it is hoped that the collection will net a large sum for the work.

At this time there are about one hundred and fifty beneficiaries on the commitee's list, and the number is increas-ing. The average appropriation for a year is about $100, and in serious cases of need a larger amount, though never exceeding the sum of $250. The last year about 30 per cent of the amounts promised was paid. It is most urgently desired that the churches will enable the committee to do much better in reliev-ing the wants and comforting the hearts of the old ministers and the widows and

The Religious Herald of this week contains the following account, written by the Rev. B. C. Jones, a young Baptist minister of Pulaski, Va.:

There lives near Clark's Summit, eight miles from this place, a family ramed Jones. The family until recently were members of the Methodist Church. Some months ago Sister Jones, who had Some months ago Sister Jones, who had been confined to a sick bed for a long time, died, and her funeral was preached by our Brother Bane, who is the pastor of the Baptist Church at that place. The following was related by members of the family to Brother Bane, when he was in their home for the purpose of preaching the funeral: "A few days before mother died she fell into a days before mother died she fell into a swoon, or trance. She remained in this condition for several hours. When she condition for several hours. When she revived she said: '1 have been away to-day, and I saw a land whose beauty surpasses my power to describe. I saw my Saviour, also. He told me that he my saviour, also. He told me that he was going to give me a good home; but it would not be as beautiful to me, nor would I be as happy in it as I would have been if I had obeyed His command and followed Him in the ordinance of baptism.' She then anxiously urged us to obey Him and be immersed." This circumstance has created some concern circumstance has created some concern in that community as to the Bible mode and meaning of baptism. Brother Bane has since baptized one or more of the family, and the father says he will not die satisfied without first being im-

The Rev. S. R. Gammen and family, and Miss Charlotte Kemper, of the Presbyterian mission in Brazil, have returned home for a visit. They came by way of Liverpool and arrived in New York on June 21st. Miss Kemper is now in Alexandria and Mr. Gammon with friends in Southwest Virginia. He will probably visit Richmond at some later date.

The action of a certain Episcopal Church paper in hinting that the late Bishop Wnittle's episcopate was a failure, seems to have aroused somewhat of a storm and at the same time to have provoked a broad smile in some sections. A writer in the Southern Churchman of this week says:

"In a recent issue of one of our Church papers, the editor says: 'Bishop Whittle's episcopate of more than thirty years has been one in which success and fail-the city, a band is employed to play in the parks on Sunday afternoon. Though the music selected is sacred, or socalled, the demoralization is nevertheless great Quiet is destroyed, the people and their children are drawn from their homes into a holiday afternoon. Churches and Sunday-schools are forsaken, and the people are taught irreverence for the day and for religion." The Central also deplores the plan of Congress in using Sunday for culogies of deceased members. It is plainly, the paper says, a violation by a law-making power of the common law of the common paper says, a violation by a law-making power of the common law of the country, which makes Sunday a day of rest, for the moral and religious protection of the people; and if time cannot be found on other days for these eulogies and personal tributes they would better be left unspoken.

The tent meetings conducted with great success last year in the East End by the Reva. George H. Wiley and James F. Cook will be resumed this season. Through the generosity of some Christian people of Richmond it has been possible to purchase an entirely new tent, capable of seating a thousand persons.

The first meeting will be entirely for men and will be held Sunday afterneon at 8:30 o'clock. Dr. John Hannon, of Union-Station Methodist Church, will preach, At night and every night thereafter meetings for the general public will be held. The Rev. Mr. Cook will preach during the first week.

RAISE MONUMENT FUND

Major Dooley Offers to Be One of Ten to Give a Thousand Dollars Each.

Interest in the memorial to President Jefferson Davis seems to be on the increase since the adoption of the design for the arch. The recent appeals in behalf of the monument fund will undoubtedly bear fruit. There will be a good deal more money raised in Richmond.

The treasurer of the association is in receipt of the following very gratifying letter:

to the appeals which have been made by you and others in this cause. As Mr. Davis resided in Richmond, as Richmond was the capital of the Con-federacy, and the whole South has united in selecting Richmond as the site of the monument, I feel it to be peculiarly in-cumbent on us to contribute liberally and cheerfully to its construction. In the hope of raising the sum of $10,000 for the purpose, I offer to be one of the ten to give one thousand dollars each, or one of the twenty to give five hundred

PRESIDENT MONTAGUE HERE

Virginian Increases Endowment of Furman University Centennial Celebration

One of the distinguished visitors to the city is President A. P. Montague, of Furman University, Greenville, S. C. Dr. Montague will be in the city some days, and will go from here to Essex county, his old home.

Since President Montague has been associated with Furman the institution has grown a great deal, and advanced in many ways. It is learned that by individual effort he has secured $50,000 for the endowment fund of the university. This amount may be increased to $100,000

Grove-Avenue Saptist Church will on next Sunday morning have a "mank-grying and rally" service. On first Sun-day in June, the church took up a col-lection to, liquidate the church debt amounting to about $6,00. Nearly the en-tire amount has been raised. The church now proposes to have a "thanksgiving service."

Dr. Hawthorne will preach a sermon-subject, "Thank God and take Courage." The choir has also prepared a special programme of music.

A Great Many Call on Various Matters.

SCHOOL OFFICERS CHOSEN

Board of Public Works to Complete Its Labors Shortly-Holiday to Be Observed at Capitol and State Library To-Day-Notes.

Governor Montague and the other members of the State Board of Public Works returned yesterday from Norfolk, where on Wednesday they spent the day assessing railroad and steamboat property. The board will meet either tomorrow or Monday to finish up its work. All the State offices will be closed in honor of the glorious Fourth to-day, and no business will be transacted in any of the departments. Governor Montague expressed himself as pleased with his trip, both to Dan-ville and Norfolk, and said he had no other out-of-town engagements for the present. He was fairly besieged with callers yesterday, and while there were many important matters before him, he was allowed to dispose of but few of Colonel Jo Lane Stern and Acting Adjutant-General Barrow called to confer in regard to the military taking the oath, but owing to pressure of other matters upon His Excellency the confer-ence was postponed. Commodore Stiege, of the German ship

Vineta, in company with the German rep-resentative here, Mr. E. K. Vietor, called in the afternoon. The Governor was very much impressed with his distinguished visitor, and a pleasant little interview was had.

The State Board of Education met in the office of Dr. Joseph W. Southall, Superintendent, at 12:30 o'clock yesterday ternoon and elected two law sensor accessioned by resignations.

Major Francis II. Smith, Jr. was elected to succeed Mr. J. H. Bader, of the city of Staunton, while Mr. W. L. Patton takes the place of Superintendent W. J. Kendrick, of Russell. Prof. Bader resigned to accept a place with a large northern publishing house, while Mr. Kendrick will shortly become associate editor of the Suffolk Herald.

Major Smith, who was elected superintendent for Staunton, is a son of the late General Francis H. Smith, of the V. M. I. and is in every way equipped for his work. Mr. Patton who succeeds Mr. Kendrick, comes highly recommended and will doubtless make a good officer.

An interesting question has arisen as a town elections under the new Consti-ation. It seems that the instrument akes provision for elections in the cities and counties of the State, but leaves that as to towns to the Legislature. It is the view of some that no town elec-tions can be held after July 10th until tions can be held after July 10th until the Legislature has made some provision on the subject. A case has arisen as to a town in Mecklenburg county, where it is proposed to hold an election on the question of issuing bonds shortly after July 10th. It is contended that until a new registraton is provided and held, all the town voters will be disfrancheised.

CRAWFORD AFFAIR AGAIN

Central Presbyterian Says Judge Campe bell Has Shown Himself Unfit for Offic-The Central Presbyterian came out; resterday with an editorial notice of the recent Crawford-Campbell affair at Amherst, and had the following to say concerning the matter:

"Much indignation has been felt in Virginia because of the personal assault risde on the Rev. Mr. Crawford, an elderly Baptist minister, and the secre-tary of the Anti-Saloon League of Virdnia, by the judge of Amherst County Fort. Mr. Crawford had been Arraigned before the court for an alleged con-tempt of the court, in something he had raid in the Christian Federation, the organ of the Anti-Saloon League. But it as shown that the language was used after the court had acted, and was not, therefore, legally dismissed. After the court had adjourned, Judge Campbell court had adjourned, Judge Campbell made a personal assault with a whip upco Mr. Crawford, beating him severely over the head and face. The charge made by Mr. Crawford against Judge Campbell was offensive and injurious, whether he believed it to be true or not, and should not have been made without the purpose and means of proving its truth. But the violent assault of the county indice upon any man, and the county judge upon any man, and especially upon a man tried in his court, was a gross violation of law, destroying the dignity and majesty of the court, and proving himself of such uncontrolltemper that he is unfit for his high
